

SPEAKERS' CONTACT INFORMATION

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

11:00 AM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Managing Technology in the Public Sector: CIO of the Year Panel

Daniel Chan, Chief Information Officer, Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, New York State daniel.chan@otda.state.ny.us

Ed Hemminger, Chief Information Officer, Ontario County, NY
ed.hemminger@co.ontario.ny.us

Kim McKinney, Chief Information Officer, Broome County, NY kmckinney@co.broome.ny.us

Mobile Computing: Security on the Move — Securing Mobile Devices

Simon Mizikovsky, Wireless Security and Fraud Prevention, Wireless Standards Department, Alcatel-Lucent smizikovsky@alcatel-lucent.com

Emerging Technology: Desktop Virtualization

Robert Kadish, Endpoint Virtualization Specialist, Symantec
robert_kadish@symantec.com

Tony Coppla, Thin Client Specialist, Hewlett-Packard Company
anthony.b.coppla@hp.com

Security: Who are You — Identity and Access Management

Jay Ranade, Director of Educational Services, Technodyne jrnade@technodyne.net

Steve Sokal, Information Security Officer, New York State Public Service Commission steven_sokal@dps.state.ny.us

1:15 PM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Mobile Computing: Government on the Go — Preparing for Telework

Steve Given, Global Leader for Energy, Nortel steven_given@nortel.com

IT Governance

Kevin Belden, Deputy Comptroller, Chief Information Officer, Division of the CIO, Office of the State Comptroller, New York
kbelden@osc.state.ny.us

Security: Protecting All That Data

Simon Hunt, VP and CTO, Data Protection Business Unit, McAfee
simon_hunt@mcafee.com

3:00 PM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Managing Technology in the Public Sector: The New Workforce

Rico Singleton, Deputy Chief Information Officer, Office of the Chief Information Officer/OFT, New York State
rico.singleton@cio.state.ny.us

Mobile Computing: The Future of Mobile Technology

Carlos Mariosa, Sr. Manager Government Practice, Industry & Mobility Application, Solutions Group, AT&T Business Solutions
bn3819@att.com

Vic Berger, Solutions Manager, CDWG
vic.berger@cdwg.com

Emerging Technology: Governing in the Cloud — An Update on New Service Models

Mark Cleverley, Director, Strategy IBM Global Government mark.cleverley@us.ibm.com

Rock Regan, Principal Business Solutions Consultant – IT & Security Solutions, Government/Education, Northeast, Verizon Business
gregg.regan@verizonbusiness.com

Security: Getting Past “No” — How to Implement 2.0 without a Security Crisis

Ken Kaminski, Security Architect, Cisco kkaminsk@cisco.com

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

10:30 AM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Managing Technology in the Public Sector: The CIO's Perspective — An Update from the NYS Office of the CIO

Daniel Healy, Deputy Chief Information Officer, Office of the Chief Information Officer/OFT, New York State
dan.healy@oft.state.ny.us

Rico Singleton, Deputy Chief Information Officer, Office of the Chief Information Officer/OFT, New York State
rico.singleton@cio.state.ny.us

Emerging Technology: All a Twitter Over Web Two-Point-Oh: Why MTV Isn't, Why Radio is a Pandora's Box and Why Government Service Delivery Will Never be the Same

Paul Taylor, Ph.D., Chief Strategy Officer, Center for Digital Government
ptaylor@erepublic.com

Rethinking the Database: Using XML Databases to Support Business Processes and Enhance Capabilities

Jim Costello, Lead Programmer/Analyst, Technology Services Center for Technology in Government, University at Albany
jcostello@ctg.albany.edu

James Lieb, Director, Common Service and Case Management Department of Taxation and Finance, New York State
james_lieb@tax.state.ny.us

Managing Technology: Data Identification and Classification

Slawomir Marcinkowski, CISSP, Information Security Consultant, NYSTEC slaw@nystec.com

Deborah Snyder, CISSP, GSLC, PMP, Chief Information Security Officer, Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, New York State deborah.snyder@otda.state.ny.us

12:45 PM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Managing Technology in the Public Sector: Renovation Nation: There's Work To Do ... and New Platforms, Partners and Tools for Getting it Done

Paul Taylor, Ph.D., Chief Strategy Officer, Center for Digital Government
ptaylor@erepublic.com

Emerging Technology: Open Source

Andrew Hoppin, Chief Information Officer, New York State Senate
andrew.hoppin@gmail.com

Robert Vitello, Chief Information Officer, Department of Labor, New York State robert.vitello@labor.state.ny.us

Best Practices: Customer Service – The NYC 311 Story

Joe Morrisroe, Deputy Commissioner – City of New York, Department of Information Technology and Telecommunications (DoITT), NYC and NYC.gov
jmorrisroe@doitt.nyc.gov

Managing Technology: Performance Management

Dan Donnelly, Application Performance Specialist, Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, New York State dan.donnelly@otda.state.ny.us

John Murphy, Manager of Quality Management Center, Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, New York State john.murphy@otda.state.ny.us

Rick Ryan, IT Manager – Web Based Systems, Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, New York State
rick.ryan@otda.state.ny.us

2:20 PM

CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Managing Technology in the Public Sector:

An Executive View of Project Management

Sponsored by the New York State Project Management Committee

Kevin Belden, Chief Information Officer, Office of the State Comptroller, New York State
kbelden@osc.state.ny.us

Nancy Mulholland, Chief Information Officer, Department of Transportation, New York State nmulholland@dot.state.ny.us

Emerging Technology: Reaching Citizens Thru 2.0

Andrew Hoppin, Chief Information Officer, New York State Senate
andrew.hoppin@gmail.com

Jim Silvia, Regional Manager – Northeast, Laserfiche
jim.silvia@Laserfiche.com

Managing Technology: ITIL Awareness

Jim Alderdice, Enterprise Process Reengineering Coordinator, Chief Information Officer, Office for Technology, New York State
jim.alderdice@cio.ny.gov