

Shared Services allow organizations to benefit from economies of scale, improved efficiency, lower costs, and better quality. To learn more, click here to download your complimentary copy of the special report Making Sense for the Public Sector.

Tuesday April 22, 2008

Features

IT Security Survey Shows Government's Progress on Safeguarding Data

GT reader survey exposes strengths and weaknesses of information security.

News

Mass JavaScript Attack Compromises UN, UK Government Web Sites

In the last few hours the number of compromised sites has increased by a factor of ten.

New Spam Trick Claims 'We Caught You Naked'

"This is a simple but clever form of social engineering. It is personalized by taking the name component of your e-mail address and inserting it into the spam subject line."

Fake Grand Jury Summons E-mail

The bogus e-mail attempts to notify recipients that they are commanded to appear and testify before a Grand Jury.

Scottish Community Councils Told to Comply with Data Protection Act

"Compliance with data protection principles ensures that individuals' personal information is secure, accurate, up-to-date and processed fairly."

New Spam Web Page Found Every Three Seconds

"As long as spammers continue to make money from these nasty ruses, the spam plague will continue."

Google Software Tools Help Find Child Victims

National Center for Missing & Exploited Children uses custom Google technology to combat child pornography.

Majority Uncomfortable with Web Sites Customizing Content

Most U.S. adults are skeptical about the practice of using personal online activity information to customize Web site content.

Keystroke Logger Criminal Sentenced

Colombian citizen sentenced to prison, $347,000 restitution, for hotel business center computer fraud scheme.

Mapping Internet Black Holes

Web tool named after the Hubble Space Telescope searches for the maze of routers and fiber-optic cables that make up the Internet.

Public CIO Columnist Wins Top Security Honors

Dan Lohrmann, Michigan's chief information security officer, named 2008 CSO of the Year by SC Magazine.

Texas Attorney General Halts Sale Of Fake Driver's Licenses

Fraudulent "International Driver's Licenses," sold for $225 each.

Protection Against Cyber Attacks for Water Utilities

"Roadmap to Secure Control Systems in the Water Sector" cyber security document released.

More Security News...

Al Jazeera Correspondent and Former U.S. Marine on American Ignorance

"While we're locked in on Paris, Anna Nicole and Britney, the rest of the world is still spinning ...

We're going to be asked to make decisions as a democracy based on our take on what's happening out there ... Here we sit ... on our own little island, talking to ourself."

Yesterday's Most Read Item

Using the Internet to Physically Harm

People with epilepsy were singled out in an online assault.

Also Online

GTV Videos
Briefcase Personalization
RSS Feeds
Events
Webinars
Whitepapers
Research
Photo Galleries
Subscriptions

Publications & Web Sites

Government Technology
Public CIO
Emergency Management
Texas Technology
Digital Communities

News Topics

Cyber Security
Economic Development / E-Gov
Education
Enterprise
GIS
Health & Human Services
Policy / Management
Products
Public Safety / Homeland Security
Telecom

News items may be sent to Gina M. Scott
Please include your telephone number for verification