

Government agencies, extend your jurisdiction.

Now's a great time to try Sprint Mobile Broadband.
Get unlimited connections for a special low rate of $49.99 per month!

*Other monthly charges apply. Available for agency-liable accounts only. See below for details.***

In today's fast-paced world, government officials can especially benefit from mobile high-speed connections. Office networks provide secure, reliable access to vital applications, essential email, and sensitive information, but many employees do their most important work far from the office.

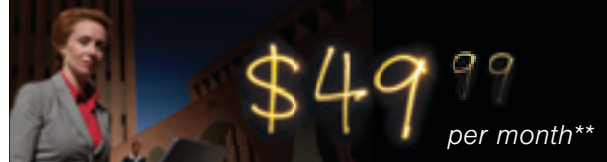

Sprint Mobile Broadband helps government agencies break down the office walls and give employees the access they need from just about anywhere. Using Sprint Mobile Broadband Devices, employees can access important information, specialized applications, and timely communications as if they were at their desks.

Sprint Mobile Broadband provides:

- > Speed – With Mobile Broadband Revision A at your fingertips, you can download huge files at blazing speed with average download speeds of 600-1400 kbps.
- > Mobility – Go wherever your business takes you nationwide, without depending on scattered hotspots.
- > Security – Depend on the inherent security of the Sprint Mobile Broadband Network.
- > Convenience – Experience a new level of on-the-go productivity right from your laptop.

Offer ends 01/12/08
